Congratulations this week go to Daisy & Scott following the safe arrival of Jack Edward Ferrie in the early hours of last Friday morning; all seem to be doing fine. Scott was of course present at the birth and carried out his duties impeccably, this came as no surprise to me, never before has a person been more suited to the birthing partner role, you need to be there, your important on paper but actually you don't really do a lot, he's a natural.

Cattle

The prime cattle trade remains strong, as usual during harvest numbers can be depleted but those with cattle to sell are certainly seeing a fine return, the bulls also were easily sold with the better end in great demand. The store cattle trade on Monday was at times staggering, so much so I was left perplexed, bemused and almost speechless at the value of some cattle as they went through the ring; I will freely admit when I am wrong and on this occasion my pre-sale valuation was 30% lower than the actual sale price, shocking!

Sheep

The prime lambs it appears have finally taken a tumble, we saw a strong trade last Thursday but since then things seem to have been on the slide, as I write this (Wednesday) the forecast looks as though we might see a 20 pence drop in the course of a week tomorrow; before everyone panics we should be clear that even after this drop prices are similar to those we saw in 2016 at this stage and way in front of 2015's level. Store lambs and breeding sheep will be plentiful on Monday as the catalogue has filled up nicely, some real quality will be on offer and we hope for a fast trade throughout.

And finally..... My showing hobby is coming towards an end now but once again at the Ryedale Show yesterday it was good to see plenty of familiar faces and DfAM customers in the winners enclosure, Interbreed Sheep champion Mark Bulmer and Interbreed Beef Champion Mark Harryman both sell here on Clifton Road. The biggest award of the day for best outdoor trade stand was won by friend of DfAM Richard Bell Machinery, I went to see the winning stand, make sure you visit Richard at next year's show he gives away unlimited food and drink all day. Tell him I sent you.

Grant Funding Available

Various LEADER Local Action Groups (LAG) are located across the region providing support to help increase farm productivity with grants of up to 40%.

Examples of projects that LAG groups may support include

- A project to improve the overall performance and sustainability of an agricultural holding
- An investment to support animal health and welfare improvements
- The processing, marketing and/or development of agricultural products
- Investment in reservoirs and irrigation systems

It must be noted that grants are only available for what is considered “non-standard equipment”. The LEADER handbook is expected to be updated this month which may provide further guidance on what is eligible.
